

FAIR HOUSING: BEST PRACTICES FOR SCREENING APPLICANTS

Thursday, October 14, 2010
12PM to 2 PM (Lunch provided)
NPH Conference Room
369 Pine Street, Suite 310, San Francisco
(Montgomery BART)

Lunch will be available at 11:30am to allow you time to eat and network.

Speakers: Navneet Grewal, Staff Attorney, National Housing Law Project
Meliah Schultzman, Staff Attorney, National Housing Law Project
Catherine McKee, Staff Attorney and Soros Justice Fellow, National Housing Law Project

This panel will overview fair housing considerations that property managers and owners must take into account when screening applicants for admission to housing, with an emphasis on federally assisted and LIHTC properties. Topics will include the rights of people with disabilities, survivors of domestic violence, limited English proficient persons, and people with a criminal record to access housing.
